

The Socks Project

"...for I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink,
I was naked and you gave me clothing."

Matthew 25:35

What do you do when cold, rainy weather leaves you with wet shoes, wet socks, and cold feet?

Those of us who are fortunate go home and change into some dry socks and shoes or slippers, and turn up the heat. Our brothers and sisters who live on the street do not have that luxury. They may not even own a second pair of socks.

During Lent, donations of new socks will be collected in local parishes by students from the School for Deacons and delivered to Martin de Porres House of Hospitality in San Francisco or one of the local shelters in our diocese for distribution.

The campaign for socks will run from Ash Wednesday, February 17, until Palm Sunday, March 28. Please join this effort to share Christ's love.

- A box will be provided for us at St Clement's during Lent
- We need Women's and/or Men's White Socks, any size

If you are visiting today please introduce yourself to us and complete one of the cards on the back of the pew. This may be placed in the offering plate, given to an usher, or handed to the clergy. If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Sunday School Classes are upstairs in the parish hall. Children begin at 10:00 AM in their classrooms, and join the congregation in the church for the Eucharist.

SUNDAY FORUM: The Rev. Salying Wong is giving a Scripture Forum: The Gospel of John in Instant Theatre! Get in touch with your inner thespian. Come read through the entire gospel of John in a fun and engaging format. You've never read the gospel till you read it like this! Meet at 9:00 AM in the conference room on Sundays through May 16 (skipping April 4 and 11 for Easter and the parish retreat). If you have any questions, please speak with the Rev. Salying Wong.

SOUP MAKERS NEEDED: Please contact Salying if you can make soup for the Maundy Thursday agape meal on April 1.

THEOLOGY ROUNDTABLE is continuing yeoman's work on Aquinas' masterpiece, the Summa Theologica (in a Readers Digest abridgment by Catholic philosopher Peter Kreeft, Summa of the Summa). In our February meeting, we had a fascinating discussion on a single paragraph in St. Thomas's argument that the existence of God can indeed be demonstrated by natural reason (as distinct from revelation). So next session we will launch into his summary of the five ways that God's existence can be demonstrated. These arguments come quite early in Kreeft's version, so it is not too late for you to join us in discussing ten of the most important pages of philosophy ever written.

The Roundtable meets at 7:30 PM in Palache Hall each month. Our next meeting is March 10, in accord with our usual practice of meeting the second Wednesday of each month. All are welcome at the Roundtable; no background in philosophy or theology is needed to profit from our discussions. For more information, contact Kristor Lawson at 510.841.2028 or kristor@schultzcollins.com.

TAI CHI CLASS: There will be a new beginning Tai Chi class, meeting on Thursday mornings in Palache Hall. The first class meets on March 11 at 8:30 AM. If you have any questions, please speak with Salying.
