THEOLOGY ROUNDTABLE: In our last meeting, Theology Roundtable worked through St. Thomas Aquinas’s famous Five Ways to demonstrate the existence of God. They appear early in our current text, Summa of the Summa, a “Reader’s Digest” version of his immensely important and comprehensive Summa Theologica. Catholic philosopher Peter Kreeft has distilled the most important arguments of the 3,000 page Summa into a manageable 500 pages. Next meeting, we will begin working on Thomas’s arguments about the nature of God. How can Thomas presume to undertake such a project? Because God is perfect; this is part of what we mean by the term, “God.” God’s perfection entails perfection in every positive good, including truth. Because there can be no contradiction between truths, so there can be no contradiction in God, who understands—and, in fact, is—all truth. This means he is perfectly rational and logical; so that he is therefore also perfectly intelligible by rational minds. Thus however impossible it may be for our limited creaturely minds to comprehend him completely, nevertheless it is eminently possible for us to understand him in part. That’s what Thomas tried to do; and we try to understand Thomas. He makes it a pleasure, with writing that is clear, straightforward and easy to understand. In his copious footnotes, Kreeft explains Thomas to us at every step.

The Roundtable meets at 7:30 PM in Palache Hall each month. Our next meeting is April 14, in accord with our usual practice of meeting the second Wednesday of each month. All are welcome at the Roundtable; no background in philosophy or theology is needed to profit from our discussions. ❖ WELCOME TO ST. CLEMENT’S ❖

If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Sunday School Classes are upstairs in the parish hall. Children begin at 10:00 AM in their classrooms, and join the congregation in the church for the Eucharist.
