

MAY 2 PARISH BRUNCH & SPRING CONCERT

Plan to stay after the 10:00 AM service on Sunday, May 2, for brunch and a program of music from 1910 to 2010. As part of St. Clement's centennial celebration, popular songs of the last century will be presented by the Adult and Youth Choirs, with opportunities for audience sing-along.

The Junior Youth Choir gets rockin' and rollin' with Splish Splash. The Adult Choir relives its youth while singing California Dreamin'. The Senior Youth Choir spans the decades with numbers by the Chordettes, Simon & Garfunkle, Abba, Journey, and the Black Eyed Peas.

The audience will sing old favorites such as Over the Rainbow, As Time Goes By, and Blue Moon. And you don't want to miss Wendell Brooks with jazz guitarist Cory Johnson performing The Very Thought of You.

PARTNER TO THE POOR Dr. Paul Farmer in conversation

Dr. Paul Farmer, U.N. deputy special envoy to Haiti and co-founder of Partners In Health (PIH), will speak in conversation with award-winning author and journalist Adam Hochschild. They will discuss the earthquake in Haiti and its aftermath, and touch on themes from Farmer's new book, Partner to the Poor, including global health, social and economic rights, and the consequences of social inequality. All donations received will be divided equally between Partners In Health and Episcopal Relief & Development for their vital work in Haiti and around the world.

When: Monday, April 19, 7:30 p.m.

Where: Grace Cathedral, 1100 California Street, San Francisco

Cost: Donations appreciated: $20/adults; $10/student and seniors

ART SHOW: Friday, May 7, 6:00-9:00 PM in Palache Hall

St. Clement's hosts a benefit Art Show for Options Recovery Services, and everyone is invited to attend. Admission is free, and art work is available with a donation to Options Recovery, a full-service substance abuse program in Berkeley available to anyone who wishes to seek treatment. It is one of the past recipients of our Goode Ritson grants.

❖ WELCOME TO ST. CLEMENT'S ❖

If you are visiting today please introduce yourself to us and complete one of the cards on the back of the pew. This may be placed in the offering plate, given to an usher, or handed to the clergy. If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Sunday School Classes are upstairs in the parish hall. Children begin at 10:00 AM in their classrooms, and join the congregation in the church for the Eucharist.

Bake Sale for Doctors Without Borders

During the earthquake in Haiti, many people were badly injured. Many people died because they did not receive the medical care that they needed. As part of their 7th grade community service project, Cecelia Andrews and Fatima Hasanain are holding a bake sale today after the 10:00 AM service, with proceeds donated to Doctors Without Borders.

THEOLOGY ROUNDTABLE: In our last meeting, Theology Roundtable worked through St. Thomas Aquinas's famous Five Ways to demonstrate the existence of God. They appear early in our current text, Summa of the Summa, a "Reader's Digest" version of his immensely important and comprehensive Summa Theologica. Catholic philosopher Peter Kreeft has distilled the most important arguments of the 3,000 page Summa into a manageable 500 pages.

The Roundtable meets at 7:30 PM in Palache Hall each month. Our next meeting is May 12, in accord with our usual practice of meeting the second Wednesday of each month. All are welcome at the Roundtable; no background in philosophy or theology is needed to profit from our discussions. For more information, contact Kristor Lawson at 510.841.2028 or kristor@schultzcollins.com.

To St. Clement's Parish: On behalf of the students, staff and faculty of the School for Deacons and the volunteers at Martin de Porres House of Hospitality, we extend our heartfelt thanks for your support of our annual ingathering of new socks for our homeless brothers and sisters.

The response to our request for socks was tremendous, and the School of Deacons received over 4,500 pairs of socks! We had 18 parishes representing five dioceses participate in this year's in-gathering; about half of these socks will be given to Martin de Porres in San Francisco for distribution to their homeless guests, with the balance being distributed to the other participating dioceses. What a blessing to have such widespread support! We are grateful for your participation in the socks drive. May the risen Christ bless you, your families and your ministry throughout this Season of Easter!

LIVETALK@CPS LECTURE SERIES presents Pamela Thomas speaking on Images of Mary: Sacred, Secular and Stylized. An art historian with degrees in theology, religion and the arts, Ms. Thomas specializes in images of the Virgin Mary throughout the ages and has taught at the Dominican School and St. Mary's College. The lecture is at College Preparatory School on Sunday, April 25, 7:30-9:00 PM. Tickets may be purchased online at livetalk.eventbrite.com.
