
❖ WELCOME TO ST. CLEMENT'S ❖

If you are visiting today please introduce yourself to us and complete one of the cards on the back of the pew. This may be placed in the offering plate, given to an usher, or handed to the clergy. If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Sunday School has ended for the program year. Children are invited to worship with their families for the entire church service. Nursery Care is still available.

ST. MARY'S GUILD LAWN SALE

Start cleaning out your closets, garages and attics. St. Mary's Guild welcomes contributions for their Lawn Sale on August 21.

Computers, televisions, large furniture (mattresses and HEAVY sofas) and clothing are not being accepted. Bring donations to the EYC room in Palache Hall. Call Barbara Smith at (510) 289-3856 with questions.

OUR CENTENNIAL BOOK, St. Clement's Episcopal Church; The First 100 Years 1908-2008; Berkeley, California, is available at cost in the church office for $25 (including tax).

MOVIE GROUP meets Sunday, July 25, at 6:00 PM for a casual pot luck and great conversations at the home of David and Kathleen Stone. See Babies and Solitary Man, both now playing. Call 510-652-8284 for directions.

DARFUR STOVES CAMPAIGN was a wonderful success! In a one Sunday push, St. Clement's and its Sunday School raised $800 for DarfurStoves.org—enough to purchase 54 stoves. This was many times more than we expected. Thank you for your generosity and for making a huge contribution to the welfare of the refugees in Darfur, Sudan. To learn more speak with the Rev. Salying or go to their website.

THEOLOGY ROUNDTABLE continues our exploration of St. Thomas Aquinas' arguments on the Nature of God. It's a pretty big subject! Our text is Summa of the Summa, a 500 page abridgement of the original 3,000 page masterpiece of the Angelic Doctor of the Church, his Summa Theologica.

The Roundtable meets at 7:30 PM in Palache Hall each month. Our next meeting is July 14, in accord with our usual practice of meeting the second Wednesday of each month. All are welcome at the Roundtable; no background in philosophy or theology is needed to profit from our discussions. For more information, contact Kristor Lawson at 510-841-2028 or kristor@schultzcollins.com.

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EfM) is recruiting new members to begin this fall. If you would like to learn more about this excellent program, please contact Megan Colwell at megancolwell@yahoo.com, or talk to any of the EfM participants or graduates at St. Clement's.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Year to date, we have received significantly less than expected from pledge income. Typically, through the end of April, St. Clement's receives 31% of the annual pledge. But this year, we're only up to 25%. Indeed, every month of 2010 has been below average. We know that the economy continues to be a challenge. However, since our budget is based on our pledge estimates, we need to know if we should be making adjustments now so that we do not find ourselves in a deficit later in the year. Please give the office a call, or talk to me to let us know if we need to adjust your pledge number or just adjust the timing of your payments.

Worship in the Wilderness: "No wonder the hills and groves were God's first temples..." exclaimed John Muir in his writing on Cathedral Peak. Have you ever longed for an active, yet reflective, Christian outdoor worship experience? If so, have you ever heard of 'liturgical hiking'? Worship in the Wilderness is a ministry in Santa Fe founded by the Rev. Jon Anderson to worship God in the beauty of the outdoors. His liturgical hikes include the Holy Eucharist in the context of a wilderness hike. A sister branch of Worship in the Wilderness is now launching in the San Francisco Bay Area (both East and West Bay). If you are interested in participating in this emerging ministry, either as a celebrant, lector, intercessor, or fellow hiker, please email Justin Cannon at toseekjustice@gmail.com.
