
❖ WELCOME TO ST. CLEMENT'S ❖

If you are visiting today please introduce yourself to us and complete one of the cards on the back of the pew. This may be placed in the offering plate, given to an usher, or handed to the clergy. If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Childcare for Infants and Toddlers is available in the nursery upstairs in Palache Hall, first door on the left. Sunday School has ended for the program year. Children are invited to worship with their families for the entire church service.

HELP WANTED! Workers are needed to help the day of the Lawn Sale, August 22. People are needed to help set up starting at 7 AM, to sell from 9 AM to 3 PM, to clean up from 3–4 PM, or stay all day and share the fun.

Please call Barbara Smith at (510) 289-3856 if you can volunteer. Coffee and donuts and lunch is provided for all workers.

BACK TO THE BOOKS: In the interest of saving a little paper this summer, as well as familiarizing or re-familiarizing ourselves with the prayer books, our Sunday bulletins have been simplified. This will lend extra opportunity for those knowledgeable of our prayer books and hymnal to assist others during services.

MOVIE GROUP: Watch Julie & Julia (starts 8/7) and The Hurt Locker (now playing). Casual potluck at Nina Steidl's house. Call 510-526-1244 for direction. Sunday, August 16, 6:00 PM, Great discussions!

OUR WEBSITE: Vestry member Chris Bailey has been keeping our parish website updated with the weekly worship service and announcements. If you want to look something up, go to stclementsberkeley.org.

CANTERBURY HOUSE needs your help!

On August 15, Canterbury House, the student ministry office for the Episcopal Church at Cal, is having a clean-up and get ready for the new school year day.

There are some outdoor and lawn work items and some indoor touch-ups to do and your help will be appreciated. The schedule is: 8:30 AM coffee and breakfast; 9:00 AM get started; 1:00 PM lunch for everyone who endures unto the end.

If you are interested in helping, please e-mail Tom, the chaplain, at calcanterbury@gmail.com.

THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION will be held at Grace Cathedral on October 17, 2009 (the previously planned convention on January 30, 2010 will be held in October of 2010). If you are interested in being a delegate to convention, or if you have any questions, please contact Bruce. Once we have a slate of “nominees,” we will hold a special parish election at the end of the summer.

THEOLOGY ROUNDTABLE is beginning to read The History of the Church, by Constantine's close friend and spiritual advisor, Bishop Eusebius. It is the first history of the Church, written about 305 AD. I can think of no better teaser than this quote from the Introduction by the translator, G.A. Williamson:

Many of [us grew up] in the conviction that the early Christians had very simple beliefs, the most primitive organization, and an almost complete lack of ceremonial. A study of [Eusebius] will satisfy us that we have been greatly deceived. [In his] statements, [and] in the testimonies of the earliest authorities on which he draws, we shall find inescapable proof that the Church of the first generations of Christians was one in which an Anglican of our own day would recognize most of the ideas and practices to which he is accustomed.

It will be fascinating to find out about this! The Roundtable meets at 7:30 PM in Palache Hall each month. Our next meeting is August 12, in accord with our usual practice of meeting the second Wednesday of each month. All are welcome at the Roundtable; no background in philosophy or theology is needed to profit from our discussions. Contact Kristor Lawson at 841-2028 or kristor@schultzcollins.com for more information.

WRITE A WILL FOR $75: You may fulfill “the duty of every person to have a will” (Book of Common Prayer, page 445) by making an appointment to meet with an attorney at St. Mark's, Palo Alto on September 19 or St. Mark's, Berkeley on September 26. For an appointment call Shari Gonzales at (415) 869-7813. More information at Make a Will, www.EpiscopalGift.org.
