
THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION
HOLY EUCHARIST & IN-GATHERING OF GIFTS

Thanksgiving Day, 10:00 AM
Thursday, November 26

Sing your favorite Thanksgiving hymns, and remember those in need by bringing your gifts of food to the altar. Non-perishable foods will be donated to St. James' Food Pantry. You can pick up bags with shopping lists attached in Palache Hall, or use this:

St. James' Shopping List

To feed a family of four:	2 cans of meat
3 cans of vegetables	3 boxes of dry milk
2 kinds of starch	1 box of cereal
2 cans of tomatoes	2 boxes of macaroni and cheese
3 cans of soup	2 pounds each of dry beans, rice, pasta
3 bags of ramen	1 jar of peanut butter
2 boxes of Jello	1 kind of dessert

You can bring your donations to the church on November 15, 22 or 26.

NUT BUTTER BARREL

St. Clement's Outreach Committee invites you to a spiritual practice of feeding the hungry whenever you shop for groceries. While buying a jar of your favorite peanut butter or almond butter, buy another for the Nut Butter Barrel Bank. Nut butters are especially nutritious and fills an empty stomach easily. Whenever the barrel gets full, a member of the Outreach Committee will take its contents to the Alameda County Food Bank. This is an easy, but profound way to practice God's commandment to love our neighbor. Please talk to Salying if you have any questions.

DIOCESAN ANNOUNCEMENT

BARBARA BRADLEY HAGERTY, National Public Radio's religion correspondent, will speak at a Brown-Bag Lunch at Easton Hall, Church Divinity School of the Pacific, 2451 Ridge Road, Berkeley, on Friday, November 13, 12:00-2:00 PM. Bradley Hagerty will talk about her new book, Fingerprints of God: The Search for the Science of Spirituality. In it, she tackles questions that had puzzled her for years: Why are some people more spiritual than others? Is there a God gene? Is there a God spot in the brain, a place where God communicates with us? Are we hard-wired to connect with God? Can we train ourselves to access another, spiritual realm? Is there life after death? Is there any evidence for God at all? Take a lunch break and join us for an energizing and inspiring discussion.

❖ WELCOME TO ST. CLEMENT'S ❖

If you are visiting today please introduce yourself to us and complete one of the cards on the back of the pew. This may be placed in the offering plate, given to an usher, or handed to the clergy. If you have questions about the order of service, please ask your neighbor in the pew. We hope you will join us for coffee next door in Palache Hall. Help yourself to a name tag on the kiosk.

Childcare for Infants and Toddlers is available in the nursery upstairs in Palache Hall, first door on the left.

Sunday School Classes are upstairs in the parish hall. Children begin at 10:00 AM in their classrooms, and join the congregation in the church for the Eucharist.

ADVENT FORUM

Baptism and Communion: an exploration of the sacraments

For the Sundays in Advent (Nov. 29, Dec. 6, 13, 20), you are invited to the Adult Forum at 9:00-9:45 AM in the conference room to explore the sacraments instituted by Jesus. Baptism is a one time event of initiation into the Body of Christ and Holy Communion is a regular practice that nourishes the body. Come learn more about how these sacraments can enrich your life of faith and your work of hope. Please speak to the Rev. Salying for details.

ADVENT QUIET DAY: Christmas is a mystery. When we come before a mystery, we can't just enter it. We have to get ready. Advent is a time to get ready to come close to the mystery of Christmas. Come to Quiet Day, Dec. 5 from 9:00 AM-1:00 PM. Avail yourself of the offerings of the day: walking the labyrinth, yoga, centering prayer, listening to scripture. Bring a dish to share in a meal to close out the day. Please talk to the Rev. Salying with any questions.

ST. CLEMENT'S LEGACY SOCIETY: St. Clement's Church has been blessed with numerous parishioners who have chosen to remember the church in their estates. As we move towards the end of our Centennial year, we would like to commemorate all those who have done so by inducting (recognizing) them as founding members of the St. Clement's Legacy Society. This founding group and all who join in the future, serve as the anchor to the parish's ongoing financial strength. If you have made provision for the church in your will, or if you remember someone who did so in the past, please let Bruce know. We will celebrate this group as we wind down our Centennial early next year.
